

TASMANIAN COMBINED CLUBS WEEKEND

Each year, the dive clubs of Tasmania get together for a weekend of diving, socialising and information evenings, known as the Combined Clubs Weekend. Dive La Trobe are again heading down to Tasmania to attend this event, held in the magnificent town of Bicheno on the East-Coast of Tasmania. With stunning diving for all abilities and a great social calendar, the weekend is always a great success. This year Nauseous will be joining us, providing the ability to offer more boat dives to members attending. There will be two options for those wishing to come along to Tasmania, a weekend trip, and a week long trip.

WEEKEND TRIP - $300

Depart Thursday 8th of June to return Wednesday 14th of June 2017

Boarding the Spirit of Tasmania for the journey to Tasmania on Thursday night, we arrive into Devonport on Friday morning. Making our way through the Tasmanian countryside we journey to the town of Bicheno to spend four days of diving the magnificent East Coast of Tasmania. With huge underwater granite boulders, there is marine life in abundance. In the evenings, we will join the other clubs in a relaxed gathering. Having dinner together on both Saturday and Sunday nights, there will be prizes and presentations on what are always very entertaining nights.

What's included?

- Four nights accommodation twin share
- Minimum of four boat dives
- Unlimited shore dives
- Complete gear hire
- All air fills
- Transport to/from Dive Sites and Accommodation
